A European Union ban on seal products has been suspended. The ban was suspended until further notice after Inuit leaders questioned the legality of the ban. The petition launched by the Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami (ITK) for an injunction has been granted by the European Court of Justice. More here and here Meanwhile the founding President of the Canadian Sealers Association, Jim Winter, has sent a blistering letter to Senator Mac Harb, denouncing his anti-sealing stance and suggesting that he has sold out to animal rights groups. Rex Murphy comments here
